Date of Trust Board Meeting: 26 June 2019
Confidential or Public Agenda: Public Agenda
Agenda item: Personal & Public Involvement Report 2018/19

1.0 Introduction

The Trust is required to produce a Personal and Public Involvement (PPI) Annual Report to ensure compliance with the PPI Standards endorsed by the Department of Health.

2.0 Background information

The PPI Annual Report illustrates how the Trust has met its statutory obligations under Personal and Public Involvement in the decision-making, planning, delivery and implementation of services. The Annual Report also includes a range of good practice examples of PPI activity and impact across the Trust.

3.0 Brief summary of key points contained in the paper/s

The PPI Annual Report includes a background to PPI as well as information on PPI aims, governance and standards within the Trust.

Within the report, key highlights with regards to PPI in the Trust in 2018-19 are illustrated, including the appointment of a new Engagement and Involvement Officer, engagement with PPI e-learning training and an 'Involving Service Users and Carers in Trust Services' event held in March 2019. A range of good practice case studies on how involvement has made a difference across Trust services are also included. Examples have been included from a wide range of Trust services. The Annual Report concludes with future plans for how the Trust will continue to implement the PPI Standards and measure the impact of PPI. Key actions identified for 19/20 are training, raising the profile of PPI and monitoring, reporting and sharing of best practice.
