Dear

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – GPs employed who have been accredited as a Practitioner with a Special Interest in Mental Health

I am writing to confirm that the South Eastern Health & Social Care Trust (the Trust) has now completed its search for the information relating to the above which you requested on 25 August 2016. A response is provided below.

1. The number and location (by electoral ward or nearest measurement) of GPs in the South Eastern Trust who have been accredited as Practitioners with a Special Interest in Mental Health (PwSI)
- A1. The Trust is not aware of any GPs employed for sessional work in various Trust facilities, who have been accredited as Practitioners with a Special Interest in Mental Health. With respect to contractor GPs and those on the Performers List, the Business Services Organisation may be able to provide further information.

Under the terms of the legislation, if you are unhappy with this response you have the right to seek a review within the Trust in the first instance. If you wish to do so, please write to me at the address below.

If after such a review you are still unhappy with the response, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner who will undertake an independent review. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF.

If you have any queries about this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely
