Agenda item: Celebration of Nursing & Midwifery Annual Report 2021

1.0 Introduction

The Celebration of Nursing & Midwifery Annual Report 2021 is available in page tiger format at: Celebration of Nursing - 2021 \(pagetiger.com\)

In recognition of the launch of this report, two improvement projects in Nursing will be presented (posters attached):

- Clinical Nurse Manager Ruth Watson (Hospital Services) will present on an improvement project that has supported the health and wellbeing of Nursing staff working within the inpatient respiratory service.
- Quality Improvement (QI) & Governance Lead Jayne Carson (Primary Care & Older People) will present on a project in District Nursing that has focused on demonstrating person centred care in Nursing documentation.

2.0 Background information

This Celebration of Nursing & Midwifery Annual Report recognises the many Nursing & Midwifery achievements within the South Eastern Trust during the period January to December 2021. It gives the different service areas an opportunity to highlight and acknowledge some of the great work being undertaken by Nurses and Midwives in their area.

3.0 Brief summary of key points contained in the paper/s

- The Celebration of Nursing & Midwifery Annual Report provides an insight into the experiences and challenges faced and how our Nurses, Midwives and Health Care Support workers stepped up in the most extraordinary way in 2021.
- The report gives an overview of the new and innovative ways of working adopted and demonstrates the dedication and commitment of our Nursing and Midwifery workforce.
