

Title of Paper: Annual Report: Celebration of Nursing & Midwifery
	For Noting

1.0 Introduction & Background

The Celebration of Nursing & Midwifery Annual Report recognises the many Nursing & Midwifery achievements within the South Eastern Trust during the period January to December 2023. The Report gives each Programme of Care an opportunity to highlight and acknowledge some of the great work being undertaken by nurses and midwives in their area.

The Celebration of Nursing & Midwifery Annual Report 2023 is tabled for noting.

Key Issues

The Celebration of Nursing & Midwifery Annual Report provides insight into the experiences and challenges faced and how our nurses, midwives and health care support workers have continued to deliver safe, person-centred care with improved experience and outcomes in 2023.

The Annual Report gives an overview of the new and innovative ways of working adopted and demonstrates the dedication and commitment of our Nursing and Midwifery workforce.

3.0 Resources Implications (Organisational, Financial, Human Resources)

Not applicable in respect of the Report itself.

4.0 Impact on Safety, Quality and Experience (SQE)

Not applicable in respect of the Report itself.

5.0 Key Risks and Proposals to Mitigate

Not applicable in respect of the Report itself.

Lead Director: Dr David Robinson, Deputy Chief Executive, Executive Director of Nursing, Midwifery & Allied Health Professionals and Director of Patient Experience

Date: 29 May 2024