- Q1. *I was wondering whether the totals you and your team collated, in reference to RFI 58974, came from an annual reporting of the figures, and whether we could have those where possible? This will help us analyse any trends across the UK over the past 10 or so years.
- A1. The information released to you, under RFI 58974, was not collated from an annual report. The information was collated from a reporting system specifically for your request. Therefore there is no annual report available to release to you.
